The top ten books published this month that librarians across the country love.

THE ROSIE EFFECT: A Novel by Graeme Simsion (Simon & Schuster) "Don Tillman and Rosie are back again, and they’ve relocated to New York. Rosie is continuing her studies, while Don is teaching and even adding to his small circle of friends. But when Rosie announces that she is pregnant, Don is once again out of his depth. What follows are crazy situations that could only happen when Don is involved. Funny and heartwarming.”
—Catherine Coyne, Mansfield Public Library Mansfield, MA

GOLDEN SON: Book II of the Red Rising Trilogy by Pierce Brown (Del Rey) "After reading Red Rising, I was looking forward to seeing more of the politics of this world. Darrow has infiltrated the Golds and works to bring them down from the inside, end their tyranny, and free his people. There’s so much political drama and action. Brown does a wonderful job describing it all through Darrow’s eyes. It’s exhausting, thrilling, and heartwrenching!”
—Nita Gill, Brookings Public Library Brookings, SD

THE MAGICIAN’S LIE: A Novel by Greer Macallister (Sourcebooks Landmark) "Arden is a famous illusionist whose show involves sawing a man in half, but one night, she grabs an axe instead of a knife and her husband is found dead under the stage. Can Arden, an expert at deception, get away with murder—or is she really innocent? Recommended to anyone who likes historical fiction, strong women characters, and surprisingly twisty plots.”
—Paula Jones, Brockton Public Library Brockton, MA

THE DRESS SHOP OF DREAMS: A Novel by Menna van Praag (Ballantine Books) "Tidy, romantic, and fine escapism. All the characters here have interesting back stories: Cora is believable as a no-nonsense gal trying to rebuff sweet Walt’s advances, and Etta is someone I’d like to meet in real life. Reminiscent of Love Actually and PS. I Love You, this cute little book is recommended to readers who want to be charmed by the possibilities of love.”
—Andrienne Cruz, Azusa City Library Azusa, CA

FIRST FROST: by Sarah Addison Allen (St. Martin’s Press) "First Frost is a great continuation of the stories of sisters Claire and Sydney, and Sydney’s teenage daughter, Bay. Each of the Waverly’s has their own somewhat supernatural gift, and all of them struggle with issues of identity and family. As with Allen’s previous works, this novel will appeal to fans of Alice Hoffman, and readers who enjoy family stories that are not overflowing with angst and drama.”
—Lauren Mitchell, Pima County Libraries Tucson, AZ

THE BISHOP’S WIFE: by Mette Ivie Harrison (Soho Crime) "As a practicing Mormon, I felt Harrison did a great job of detailing Mormon culture and doctrine without evangelizing. I appreciated that the bishop is a good man, and the bishop’s wife is a woman who has been through her own struggles. The bishop’s wife sometimes can barely keep up with all the drama and mysteries around her. But she does, and it quite well under the circumstances. This is a rather brave book.”
—Amanda Monson, Bartow County Library System, Cartersville, GA

THE GIRL ON THE TRAIN: A Novel by Paula Hawkins (Riverhead) “Rachel is a washed-up thirty-something who creates a fantasy about the seemingly perfect couple she sees during her daily train ride into London. When the woman goes missing, Rachel manages to insert herself into the investigation of the woman’s disappearance. In the vein of Gone Girl, this dark psychological thriller is fast-paced and features some very unreliable narrators.”
—Andrea Larson, Cook Memorial Public Library Libertyville, IL

FULL THROTTLE: by Julie Ann Walker (Sourcebooks Casablanca) “Readers can always count on Walker to deliver a suspenseful, action-packed read, and she delivers on all counts. However, it isn’t the heart-pounding adventure that makes this a fabulous story—it’s the characters. Abby and Steady, college friends who were torn apart by a mutual loss, have great chemistry. Walker has created a complete and suspenseful narrative.”
—Vanessa Gempis, Dallas Public Library, Hampton-Illinois Library, Dallas, TX

THE ROSIE EFFECT (Simon & Schuster) by Graeme Simsion "Don Tillman and Rosie are back again, and they’ve relocated to New York. Rosie is continuing her studies, while Don is teaching and even adding to his small circle of friends. But when Rosie announces that she is pregnant, Don is once again out of his depth. What follows are crazy situations that could only happen when Don is involved. Funny and heartwarming.”

VANESSA AND HER SISTER: A Novel by Priya Parmar (Ballantine Books) "Told uniquely as part diary, part epistolary novel, Parmar focuses on the relationship of Vanessa (later Bell) and Virginia (later Woolf) Stephens, one filled with unspoken jealousy and a fierce love of a life that will ultimately destroy their kinship. This well-researched novel with gorgeous prose brings the characters to life with a unique perspective.”
—Jennifer Winberry, Hunterdon County Library, Flemington, NJ

AS CHIMNEY SWEEPERS COME TO DUST: A Flavia de Luce Novel by Alan Bradley (Delacorte Press) "After the unexpected recovery of her mother’s body brings the de Luce’s family secrets to light, Flavia’s life is turned upside down. Now on her way to a Canadian boarding school, she must survive her first term—and more importantly, uncover the mystery of a corpse found in her dorm room chimney the night she arrives. A delightful installment in the series!”
—Lizzie Gall, Grand Rapids Public Library, Grand Rapids, MI

FIRST FROST (St. Martin’s Press) by Sarah Addison Allen "First Frost is a great continuation of the stories of sisters Claire and Sydney, and Sydney’s teenage daughter, Bay.
