The top ten books published this month that librarians across the country love.

CIRCLING THE SUN
A Novel by Paula McLain (Ballantine Books)

“I couldn’t stop reading this fascinating portrayal of Beryl Markham, a complex and strong-willed woman who fought to make her way in the world on her terms. McLain paints a captivating portrait of Africa in the 1920s and the life of expats making their home there. Highly, highly recommended.”

—Halle Eisenman, Beaufort County Library, Hilton Head, SC

KISS ME
A Novel by Susan Mallery (HQN Books)

“As always, Ms. Mallery has given us a fantastic read. As soon as I pick up her titles, I can’t put them down until I have finished them. They are feel-good, heartwarming—I need more synonyms. I love seeing all the previous characters, the friendships and families that have formed since Chasing Perfect came out five years ago. Thanks, Ms. Mallery, for another amazing read.”

—Jenelle Klavenga, Marshalltown Public Library, Marshalltown, IA

SPEAKING IN BONES
A Novel by Kathy Reichs (Bantam)

“This book lives up to the expectations we have for Kathy Reichs. A compelling and dangerous mystery, lots of medical details, and good characterization make this a title that will be easy to recommend!”

—Leslie Johnson, Jefferson County Public Library, Lakewood, CO

THOSE GIRLS
A Novel by Chevy Stevens (St. Martin’s Press)

“Those Girls follows the lives of the Campbell sisters. After running away from their alcoholic father, they find themselves caught in a worse situation when they are kidnapped. As events spiral out of control, they manage to escape and create new lives. This is a tale that will captivate readers and show just how strong the bond between family members can be.”

—Annice Sevett, Willmar Public Library, Willmar, MN

LOVE LIES BENEATH
A Novel by Ellen Hopkins (Aria Books)

“An intriguing tale of sex, romance and deception. Tara is a brilliant, sexy forty-something. She's enjoying being single until Cavin, a handsome doctor, enters her exam room. They have a hot and steamy romance but there is much, much more to this story. Ellen Hopkins commands each word on the page from her prose to verse.”

—Laura Hartwig, Meriden Public Library, Meriden, CT

SECOND CHANCE SUMMER
A Novel by Jill Shalvis (Grand Central Publishing)

“I loved this book, a perfect start to the newest series by Jill Shalvis. It contains the same humor, heart and heat that we’ve come to expect from this author. It should be on every romance reader’s summer reading list.”

—Carole Tossman, Howard County Library System, Columbia, MD

GOOD AND CHEAP
Eat Well on $4/Day by Leanne Brown (Workman Publishing Company)

“Wow! This is a great looking book. Each dish has a photo. Great for beginners with its details about ingredients and kitchen tools. Best of all, each recipe is made from ingredients that most everyone has; there were only two ingredients in the whole book that I don’t own. This book is just what my doctor ordered, literally. I am a basic cook and like simple and tasty. This book is OUTSTANDING!”

—Nancy Chalk, Charlotte Public Library, Charlotte, MA

KITCHENS OF THE GREAT MIDWEST
A Novel by J. Ryan Stradal (Pamela Dorman Books)

“This novel is quirky and colorful. The story revolves around chef Eva Thorvall and the people who influence her life and her cooking. With well-drawn characters and mouthwatering descriptions of meals, Kitchens of the Great Midwest will appeal to readers who love vivid storytelling. Foodies will also enjoy this delicious tale.”

—Anbolyn Potter, Chandler Public Library, Chandler, AZ

MAYBE IN ANOTHER LIFE
A Novel by Taylor Jenkins Reid (Washington Square Press)

“Hannah Martin has just moved back to L.A after ending a relationship. Her best friend, Gabby, takes her out to a bar on her first night home. Enter Ethan, the One Who Got Away, and suddenly, Hannah has to decide if she’ll leave with Ethan or Gabby. We follow Hannah after choosing both options, alternating chapters to explore the consequences of each. A must for anyone who loves a hankie with their books!”

—Tracy Babiasz, Chapel Hill Public Library, Chapel Hill, NC

TOP PICK!

CROOKED HEART
A Novel by Lissa Evans (Harper)

“Crooked Heart is a rewarding, addictive read. Orphaned ten-year-old bookworm Noel, sent away to rural St. Albans, finds himself under the reluctant guardianship of Vee, aka Mrs. Vera Sledge. Amidst a chaotic background of bombings and uncertain futures, Vee and Noel gradually form a powerful bond. I recommend this darkly humorous, honest, and complex story. It is book club heaven.”

—Janet Schneider, Oceanside Library, Oceanside, NY
