June 2020 - The top ten books published this month that librarians across the country love.

The Boyfriend Project
by Farrah Rochon
(Forever)

"In this contemporary romance, three women who were two-timed by the same man become friends. The unique, funny premise cleverly serves as a catalyst for why the women are trying to make changes in their lives. The romance is lovely and finds ways in which the couple struggles to be together. Give this to fans of Mia Sosa and Alisha Rai!"

—Ann Carpenter, Brooks Free Library, Harwich, MA
NovelList read-alike: The Right Swipe by Alisha Rai

Devolution
A Firsthand Account of the Rainier Sasquatch Massacre
by Max Brooks
(Del Rey)

"Nobody imagines the end of the world quite like Brooks! Here he takes a group of privileged idealists, sets them in a beautiful utopia where they can escape the headaches of the city but suffer none of the inconveniences, and then brutally removes all the comforts they expect to be delivered. Throw in some hungry Sasquatch and things get really interesting. For fans of Blake Crouch and Jeff VanderMeer."

—Amy Hall, Jefferson County Public Library, Wheat Ridge, CO
NovelList read-alike: The Abominable by Dan Simmons

The Girl from Widow Hills
A Novel
by Megan Miranda
(Simon & Schuster)

"Miranda returns with another engrossing psychological thriller that will keep you on the edge of your seat. The story is primarily told from Olivia’s unreliable perspective. News reports, book excerpts, and other media are also used to fill out the story, which keeps the plot moving. For fans of Conviction (Mina) and The Other Mrs. (Kubica)."

—Megan Coleman, Cecil County Public Library, Elkin, MD
NovelList read-alike: Are You Sleeping by Kathleen Barber

The Last Flight
A Novel
by Julie Clark
(Sourcebooks Landmark)

"Claire and Eva both have reasons for wanting to disappear, so when they happen upon each other at the airport, they decide to take the other person’s flight. However, when one of the planes crashes, the danger they thought they were leaving isn’t far behind. For readers who enjoyed The Last Mrs. Parrish by Liv Constantine and The Passenger by Lisa Lutz."

—Lora Bruggeman, Indian Prairie Public Library, Darien, IL
NovelList read-alike: Layover by David Bell

The Lies That Bind
A Novel
by Emily Giffin
(Ballantine Books)

"Cecily is fresh off a break up and meets a “too good to be true” stranger in a local dive bar. For fans of Me Before You by Jojo Moyes."

—Stephanie Hall, Topeka Public Library, Topeka, KS
NovelList read-alike: Ghosted by Rosie Walsh

The Guest List
A Novel
by Lucy Foley
(William Morrow)

"A wedding celebration on a remote island off the coast of Ireland turns eerie and nightmarish in this gothic atmospheric mystery. A good choice for fans of Ruth Ware."

—BillAnderson, Scott County Public Library, Scottsburg, IN NovelList read-alike: Go To My Grave by Catriona McPherson

The Empire of Gold
A Novel
by S.A. Chakraborty
(Harper Voyager)

"This is a story about colonialism and cycles of trauma, giving an in depth look at the politics and psychology of a land warped over by ethnic factions for centuries. Highly recommended to anyone looking for an imaginative fantasy with complex characters, well developed relationships, and insightful social commentary. For readers who enjoy N.K. Jemisin and Tasha Suri."

—Lauren Mitchell, Neenah Public Library, Neenah, WI
NovelList read-alike: Books of Ambha by Tasha Suri

The Vanishing Half
A Novel
by Brit Bennett
(Riverhead Books)

"Centering on two twin light-skinned black girls who grew up in a strange town in the Jim Crow south, this book explores racism, colorism, sexism, and familial relationships through the interweaving storylines of vivid and complicated characters. For fans of Red at the Bone by Jacqueline Woodson."

—Jessica Trotter, Capital Area District Libraries, Lansing, MI
NovelList read-alike: A Prince on Paper by Alyssa Cole

Made in LibraryAware - www.libraryaware.com

Find out more at www.LibraryReads.org
The LibraryReads Hall of Fame designation honors authors who have had multiple titles appear on the monthly LibraryReads list since 2013. When their third title places on the list via library staff votes, the author moves into the Hall of Fame.

JUNE 2020

Alpha Night
by Nalini Singh
(Berkley)

“This continuation of the Psy-Changeling series features the shapeshifting wolves of Moscow and their pack alpha, Selenka, but it also brings back many characters from previous books. Another enjoyable, fast-paced paranormal romance from Singh.”

—Cathy Shields, East Lyme Public Library, Niantic, CT

Alpha Night

Read-alike: The Mane Event by Shelly Laurenston
Read-alike: Dragon Bound by Thea Harrison
Read-alike: The Last Wolf by Manya Vale

Dance Away with Me
by Susan Elizabeth Phillips
(William Morrow)

“Phillips’ slow-burn romance centers around a grieving young widow who is drawn into the life of a frustrated artist. The story’s darker turns are lightened by humor drawn from the small-town Tennessee setting. Highly recommended.”

—Rose Miller, Orange Public Library, Orange, CA

Dance Away with Me

Read-alike: Blue Hollow Falls by Donna Kauffman
Read-alike: Blackberry Summer by RaeAnne Thayne
Read-alike: Sanctuary Cove by Rochelle Alers

The Dilemma
by B.A. Paris
(St. Martin’s Press)

“If you knew something that was certain to change everything, would you keep it a secret to hold on to tranquility for one more day? Paris’ driving narrative, alternating between the perspectives of a husband and wife, guarantees your book group will be divided over this very question.”

—Lori Steinbacher, Ridgewood Public Library, Ridgewood, NJ

The Dilemma

Read-alike: Something in the Water by Catherine Steadman
Read-alike: My Lovely Wife by Samantha Downing
Read-alike: Behind Her Eyes by Sarah Pinborough

Home Before Dark
by Riley Sager
(Dutton)

“Maggie’s father wrote a famous book about the family’s paranormal experiences when she was a child living at Baneberry Hall. Twenty-six years later she returns to the house to finally face what happened long ago. This suspenseful and compelling book keeps you guessing to the very end.”

—Ashley Boror, Normal Memorial Library, Fayette, OH

Home Before Dark

Read-alike: The Family Upstairs by Lisa Jewell
Read-alike: The Missing Years by Lexie Elliott
Read-alike: The Invited by Jennifer McMahon

Party of Two
by Jasmine Guillory
(Berkley)

“In the fifth book of the Wedding Date series, sparks fly between a smart, independent lawyer and a charming, impulsive senator. Guillory thoughtfully incorporates serious issues into her books while keeping the tone light and uplifting. Sweet, sexy, and a lot of fun.”

—Jayme Hughes-Gartin, Public Library of Cincinnati and Hamilton County, Cincinnati, OH

Party of Two

Read-alike: A Duke by Default by Alyssa Cole
Read-alike: Rumor Has It by Cheris F. Hodges
Read-alike: The Bride Test by Helen Hoang
Read-alike: The Unhoneymooners by Christina Lauren