The renovated Hotel Nantucket is haunted and Lizbet Keaton and staff must improve the hotel’s reputation. This book has everything: sumptuously described food, a charming heroine, and a character-driven story. There is enough mystery that makes you guess and the story moves at a pleasant pace.

_The Hotel Nantucket_ by Elin Hilderbrand
(Little, Brown and Company)

“An alcoholic starlet’s husband dies at the family lake house. She returns and meets her new neighbors: a famous model, who almost drowned in the lake, and her rich techie husband. But do they have as great a marriage as it seems? To say anymore would be giving too much of the fun away. A must-read thriller for those who liked Getaway and The Return.”
