When a clan’s ritualistic murder goes awry, Chief Inspector Black investigates what led to this gruesome scene. The isolated setting of an isle off the coast of Scotland and Ward’s lyrical prose contribute to the sinister tone of this atmospheric tale.

—Chloe Whittaker, Troy Public Library, Troy, NY

Little Eve
by Catriona Ward
(Tor Nightfire)

“A wonderful literary gothic tale.”
—James Pecoraro, New York Times bestselling author of Sound her Out

NovelList read-alike:
We Have Always Lived in the Castle by Shirley Jackson

Partners in Crime
A Novel
by Alisha Rai
(Avon)

“Former lovers Mira and Nareen unexpectedly share close quarters when they are kidnapped by a gang lord. In this madcap romantic comedy, the heroine and hero transform from mild-mannered accountant and lawyer to secret agent types. While the adventure aspect entertains, the romance satisfies with a hero and heroine who evolve convincingly in their relationship.”

—Janet Schneider, Peninsula Public Library, Lawrence, NY

NovelList read-alike:
Something Wilder by Christina Lauren

Such Sharp Teeth
by Rachel Harrison
(Berkley)

“When Rory reluctantly returns to her hometown to support her pregnant twin sister, she doesn’t expect to be changed forever—by becoming a werewolf! This novel appeals with relatable characters, snappy dialogue and thoughtful commentary on what it means to have a body.”

—Allison Moore, Fairfield County District Library, Lancaster, OH

NovelList read-alike:
Mongrels by Stephen Graham Jones

The LibraryReads Hall of Fame designation honors authors who have had multiple titles appear on the monthly LibraryReads list since 2013. When their third title places on the list via library staff votes, the author moves into the Hall of Fame.

Little Eve
by Catriona Ward
(Tor Nightfire)

Partners in Crime
A Novel
by Alisha Rai
(Avon)

Such Sharp Teeth
by Rachel Harrison
(Berkley)

Find out more at www.LibraryReads.org