

Book Lovers
by Emily Henry

(Berkley)

"Nora loves her big city and her literary agent job, but agrees to go on a trip to a small town to improve her relationship with her sister. Enter Charlie Lastra, a book editor from this quaint little town. This is a romance about family and finally putting yourself first."

—Brenna Timm, High Plains Public Library, Greeley, CO

Voter Favorites 2022 - The top ten books published this year that library staff across the country love.

Carrie Soto is Back
by Taylor Jenkins Reid
(Ballantine)

"With fierce determination, Carrie Soto comes out of retirement to claim her title as the GOAT of tennis. Will she also use this opportunity to repair relationships with her father/coach and the other players on the tour? Jenkins Reid is at the top of her game with another winning page-turner."

—Stacy Lienemann, Waseca-Le Sueur Regional Library System, Waseca, MN

Hook, Line, and Sinker: A Novel
by Tessa Bailey
(Avon)

"Production assistant Hannah comes back to the small coastal town where her sister now lives to work on a film, but has to room with fisherman Fox, the local player. She's off limits because she's his captain's sister-in-law, but it's only a matter of time before sparks fly!"

—Jessica C. Williams, Tiffin-Seneca Public Library, Tiffin, OH

The It Girl: A Novel
by Ruth Ware
(Gallery/Scout Press)

"Four college friends must revisit the murder of their friend/roommate after the convicted murderer dies claiming his innocence. The multiple time periods keep a high level of suspense. There is an Agatha Christie feel with several suspects and a brilliant ending. Ware has given readers of psychological fiction a real treat!"

—Cyndi Larsen, Avon Free Public Library, Avon, CT

Love on the Brain
by Ali Hazelwood
(Berkley)

"Bee's worked hard to get her big break leading a NASA project. However, she learns that she'll be working with Levi, an old acquaintance who detests her. Or does he? Hazelwood's done it again with another fantastic romance filled with the real-world struggles of being a woman in STEM."

—Brenna Timm, High Plains Library District, Greeley, CO

Mad Honey: A Novel
by Jodi Picoult and Jennifer Finney Boylan (Ballantine Books)

"First love between golden boy Asher and intriguing new girl Lily ends with one teen dead and the other under suspicion of murder. This stellar collaboration is more layered, surprising, and emotional than any story has a right to be—and readers should eagerly devour every page."

—Sharon Layburn, South Huntington Public Library, Huntington Station, NY

The Maid: A Novel
by Nita Prose
(Ballantine)

"As a maid in a posh hotel, Molly is very proud of her work and the care she takes of the guests, even though she often has difficulty navigating social cues. When she finds a wealthy guest dead, she never imagines she has the keys to uncover a killer, and finds, after the death of her beloved Gran, there are many people willing to help her."

—Jennifer Winberry, Hunterdon County Library, Flemington, NJ

Sea of Tranquility: A Novel
by Emily St. John Mandel
(Knopf)

"In 2400, Gaspersy works at the Time Institute where he investigates the nature of reality. This book pieces together the human experience beautifully. A compelling read for time travel and sci-fi fans. The characters and insights about living through a pandemic made this a page turner!"

—Andie Conn, Mid-Continent Public Library Kansas City, MO

Upgrade: A Novel
by Blake Crouch
(Ballantine)

"Logan Ramsay works for the federal Gene Protection Agency and is exposed to an unknown compound during a raid gone bad. After he's released from the hospital, Logan's mind is working faster than ever before, his memory continues to improve, and he's faster and stronger too. But who could have caused these genetic upgrades and why?"

—Dan Brooks, Wake County Public Libraries, Raleigh, NC

The Woman in the Library: A Novel
by Sulari Gentill
(Poisoned Pen Press)

"Freddie is at the Boston Public Library when a murder occurs. While waiting for the police, she strikes up a conversation with others at her table. The four become friends, but could one of them be the murderer? Much misdirection and an unreliable narrator make for a tight little thriller that will have you sure you know whodunnit until you don't."

—Kimberly McGee, Lake Travis Community Library, Austin, TX