

MARCH 2023

The LibraryReads Hall of Fame designation honors authors who have had multiple titles appear on the monthly LibraryReads list since 2013. When their third title places on the list via library staff votes, the author moves into the Hall of Fame.

Loyalty: A Novel
by Lisa Scottoline
(G.P. Putnam's Sons)

"Franco Fioravanti dreams of owning his own lemon grove. Determined to secure a better future, he will do anything to prove his loyalty to the baron. When asked to kidnap a little boy, Franco makes a decision that changes his life and alters Sicily forever. It takes a bit for the main characters to come together but this quickly becomes an emotional, action-packed epic of love and justice, set during the rise of the Mafia."

—Karen Troutman, Peru Public Library, Peru, IN
Novelist read-alike: The Florios of Sicily by Stefania Auci

The Kind Worth Saving
by Peter Swanson
(William Morrow)

"Henry Kimball is back—dismissed from his police job and working as a private investigator. Client Joan hires Henry to investigate her cheating husband, but as he pieces together past events, he starts to realize something else may be going on. The ending provides new insight and depth into Henry's life and relationships with lots of twists and turns for mystery readers to enjoy."

—Cari Dubiel, Twinsburg Public Library, Twinsburg, OH
Novelist read-alike: The Golden Couple by Greer Hendricks

The Mostly True Story of Tanner & Louise
by Colleen Oakley
(Berkley)

"After a freak accident derails Tanner's college soccer career, she moves in with Louise, an older woman whose family thinks she needs a caregiver. But there's more to Louise than Tanner expects—and when Louise's past comes to light, the two go on the lam. Great for fans of lively intergenerational fiction and A Thousand Miles to Graceland."

—Nanette Donohue, Champaign Public Library, Champaign, IL
Novelist read-alike: The Summer Seekers by Sarah Morgan

Vera Wong's Unsolicited Advice for Murderers
by Jesse Q. Sutanto
(Berkley)

"Written with wickedly sharp humor and a tightly woven plot, the book is also about the hurt that families can give and the unexpected joys of found-family. Vera is a delight as she bosses everyone around, investigating her main suspects even as she weaves bonds of friendship with and between them. Also the descriptions of the tea and food were mouthwateringly delicious!"

—Laura Eckert, Clermont County Public Library, Milford, OH
Novelist read-alike: Aunty Lee's Delights by Ovidia Yu

What Have We Done: A Novel
by Alex Finlay
(Minotaur Books)

"One night, five teenagers who grew up together in a group home commit a murder and take off into the rest of their lives. Twenty years later, they each face an assassin sent to kill them. Now the race is on to figure out who is behind the killers. This was a fantastic roller-coaster of a thriller with lots of twists and turns."

—Linda Quinn, Fairfield Public Library, Fairfield, CT
Novelist read-alike: The Lying Game by Ruth Ware

March 23 Bonus Pick:
(New addition to the regular list)

You Never Know: A Novel of Domestic Suspense
by Connie Briscoe
(Amistad)

Find the annotation on our social media!
@libraryreads99 on Twitter
LibraryReads on Facebook and Instagram